

- Serial control

The serial system of LIBSYS provides control of journal subscriptions and subsequent monitoring of individual issues. It maintains the record of the budget sanctioned for serials under different categories, amounts encumbered and expended, thus providing complete budgetary control.

This system also handles periodicals received on gratis or in exchange. Its various functions include: Reports – Approval request form, New subscription order, Bindery order, etc.,

Journals & Magazines:

